Marking, Points and Grades

For the Language Elements, Listening Comprehension and Reading Comprehension parts of the examination, check learners' answers with the help of the answer key given on page 31. Award points as follows:

Language Elements, Part 1	Items 1-10	0.5 points each
Language Elements, Part 2	Items 11-18	1 point each
Listening Comprehension, Part 1	Items 19-23	2 points each
Listening Comprehension, Part 2	Items 24-25	2 points each
Listening Comprehension, Part 3	Items 26-30	2 points each
Reading Comprehension, Part 1	Items 31-34	2 points each
Reading Comprehension, Part 2	Items 35-38	2 points each
Reading Comprehension, Part 3	Items 39-42	2 points each

For the Writing part, award points according to the marking criteria on page 29.

For the Oral Examination, award points according to the marking criteria on page 30.

In order to pass the examination, the candidate must obtain at least 60 points. If this requirement is met, the grade is calculated according to the following table:

90-100 points	Very Good
80-89,5 points	Good
70-79,5 points	Satisfactory
60-69,5 points	Pass

The entire examination can be retaken as many times as the candidate wishes.

Examination Preparation

MOCK EXAMINATION 1 ENGLISH A2 SCHOOL

International certificates are becoming increasingly important for further education and work purposes as proof that a certain level of language competence has been reached. This applies equally to adults and to young people still in full-time education. This telc English A2 School examination follows the telc format for other language examinations at level A2 but is designed for young learners of English aged 12 to 16. All the characteristic features of telc, such as test papers based on clearly formulated language tasks, objective and standardised marking criteria and defined test specifications, apply to this examination which is in addition closely linked to the needs and interests of young people. This mock examination can be used by teachers and learners in the classroom to simulate a real examination situation. In this way young learners can be fully prepared for the examination. It can also be used for general practice, for information purposes and for examiner training.
